

RPM Quality Policy

It is RPM's Quality Policy to know their customers' requirements as well as any applicable statutory and regulatory requirements and to provide the resources necessary to meet those. RPM will establish quality objectives to measure this and then continuously improve these objectives to raise their customers' expectations to higher levels.

We get it right and then make it better!!!

John K. Apostolides, President